

Deborah Springhorn, West Lebanon, NH.

I am very concerned about the erosion that has already happened and the potential for even more damage after changes to the dam. With the increasing prevalence of extreme weather and potential flooding, more thought and resources must be put into prevention and mitigation of damage to the fragile environments alongside the Connecticut River.

Document Content(s)

130846.txt.....1