

Ben Whittington, Putney, VT.

I am a local resident. The field is currently on a delayed mowing program which allows grassland birds (bobolinks, eastern meadowlarks, etc) the requisite time to nest and fledge successfully. I am asking that approval be conditioned on the management of the upper meadow fields as a grassland bird nesting habitat including the delay of cutting until August.

Document Content(s)

131129.txt.....1