

Madeline Bergstrom, Saxtons River, VT.

I live in Saxtons River, in Windham County. Grassland bird species like bobolinks and meadowlarks are in steep decline here due to breeding habitat loss. I am asking that Great River Hydro continue delayed mowing at the Upper Meadow to support the birds breeding there. These birds are important to our ecosystem and to Vermont's identity and culture.

Document Content(s)

131218.txt.....1