

Alison Frye, Putney, VT.

I am a resident of Windham County, Vermont, and I'm aware of the benefit to local wildlife when Upper Meadows is delayed mowed. Grassland bird species are in decline across New England because of loss of breeding habitat. I am asking that Great River Hydro continue to fund the delayed mowing at the Upper Meadows to support bird breeding there.

Document Content(s)

131394.txt.....1